As Partner at Morgan & Morgan and a Board Certified Civil Trial Attorney, Andres has tried over thirty cases to verdict across a wide range of personal injury matters — from automobile negligence to premises liability — and has secured multiple seven-figure verdicts for clients along the way. That track record isn't just a credential; it's a signal to insurance companies and defense counsel that we are prepared to fight all the way to the end if that's what it takes to get clients what they deserve.

Andres' passion for the courtroom took root early. A graduate of the University of Florida Levin College of Law, he competed on the Trial Team and gained rare insight into Florida's highest court through an internship with the Florida Supreme Court — experiences that laid the foundation for a career defined by serious advocacy and courtroom skills. His Board Certification in Civil Trial Law, a distinction held by a small fraction of Florida attorneys, reflects that same commitment to excellence.

Andres represents individuals who have suffered serious injuries, and brings the same relentless preparation to every case — whether it's a rear-end collision on the highway or a dangerous condition that a property owner failed to fix. From the first consultation to the resolution of a case, the approach is straightforward: listen carefully, communicate honestly, and pursue maximum compensation without losing sight of the real person behind every case file.

With millions recovered for injury victims and a courtroom record that speaks for itself, Andres goes to work every day to level the playing field and seek full and fair justice for those he represents.

If you've been injured and need someone who will genuinely fight for you, he is ready to help.
