EDUCATION

Cumberland School of Law

Dillon Hobbs is from Birmingham, Alabama. He graduated from the University of Mississippi before earning his law degree from Samford University's Cumberland School of Law. Throughout his career, Dillon has gained experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants in personal injury cases. Dillon now only represents plaintiffs in personal injury cases. He has experience handling a wide array of different types of personal injury cases, including many auto collision cases. His goal is to make a positive impact in the lives of the injury victims he represents and help them obtain the justice they deserve. As an active member of the Alabama Association for Justice, Dillon serves as secretary-treasurer on the Emerging Leaders Board of Directors. In his free time, Dillon enjoys spending time with his wife, Taylor, and their dog, Vinny.
