Florida State University College of Law, J.D.

Grant Dostie was born and raised in Florida. He attended the Florida State University graduating with honors. After graduation Grant attended Florida State University College of Law. Grant was on the Dean's list and received Florida State's University's Distinguished Pro Bono Service Award. While pursuing his law degree, Grant clerked at a large civil litigation law firm in Tallahassee. He also served as a judicial extern for the Fourth Judicial Circuit. After graduation, Grant began his legal career with a focus in complex litigation cases.

Super Lawyers has recognized Grant as a 2020, 2019, 2018 and 2017 Florida Rising Star, an award given to no more than 2.5% of each state's top up-and-coming attorneys. Grant's recent success in the courtroom includes a $219,000.00 verdict in 2020.

Grant joined Morgan & Morgan so that he could put his litigation and trial skills to work for the people. It gives him great pride to know that his efforts will make a difference in lives of every day citizens and make the Tampa Bay Area a safer place for future generations.
