David Henry is an esteemed legal professional who has been a member of the Florida Bar since 1991, with authorization to practice law in the U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida. For over twenty years, he has played a pivotal role at Morgan & Morgan, P.A., showcasing his extensive experience and expertise in various legal matters. Before joining the firm in 2003, Mr. Henry served as a partner at a highly regarded insurance defense firm in Tampa, where he gained invaluable insights into managing both first and third-party insurance claims, offering him a well-rounded perspective from defense to plaintiff strategies.

One of the standout accomplishments in Mr. Henry's career is his Board Certification as a Civil Trial Lawyer, a distinction that speaks volumes about his remarkable trial experience, successful case outcomes, and adept handling of intricate civil trial issues. Achieving Board Certification is an accolade held by fewer than 6% of Florida attorneys, highlighting Mr. Henry's unwavering commitment to upholding rigorous professional standards and delivering unparalleled legal representation. Clients can place their trust in his wealth of knowledge and dedication to excellence when navigating complex civil litigation matters.
