Steven Nauman is an attorney in Morgan & Morgan's Orlando, Florida office. Mr. Nauman joined Morgan & Morgan's Product Safety Group in August 2017, where he focuses on helping people who suffer severe injuries caused by defective products. Mr. Nauman litigates cases throughout Florida and in federal courts across the country.

Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Mr. Nauman clerked for three years with U.S. District Judge Paul G. Byron in Orlando. There, Mr. Nauman assisted the Court in handling a wide range of federal litigation, and he gained invaluable experience and insight as a result.

Mr. Nauman is a "Double Gator," graduating from the University of Florida in 2008 with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Anthropology and in 2013 with his Juris Doctor. In law school, Mr. Nauman was a senior editor at the prestigious Florida Law Review, where he published an article examining the negative impacts of mandatory minimum sentences and exploring potential solutions to America's incarceration crisis.

In his spare time, Mr. Nauman enjoys working out, photography, traveling with his wife, Robin, and playing with his dog, Frida.
