Ravin Sahadeo is an Equity Partner at Morgan & Morgan, P.A. in the Orlando office, where he represents individuals in a wide range of negligence matters, including personal injury, wrongful death, and premises liability. With over 25 jury trials, Ravin is an experience trial attorney dedicated to achieving justice for his clients. He is licensed to practice law in both Florida and California.

Ravin's legal career began in 2013 at the age of 20, when he joined Morgan & Morgan as an intake specialist in the Social Security department. He quickly rose through the ranks to become the department's youngest legal assistant, helping recover benefits for hundreds of clients. In 2015, he transitioned into the personal injury department as a case manager, handling complex claims involving catastrophic injuries, wrongful death, auto accidents, and premises liability. During his five years in that role, Ravin was consistently ranked among the top-performing case managers firmwide.

He earned his Bachelor's degree in Political Science with a minor in Legal Studies from the University of Central Florida (UCF), where he also served as Chair of the Phi Alpha Delta Pre-Law Fraternity's Mock Trial Team. Under his leadership, the team achieved a top-five finish at the 2015 National Tournament in Washington, D.C.

In 2016, Ravin enrolled in the part-time program at Barry University School of Law while continuing to work full-time. During his third year, he clerked for the Honorable Judge Harris of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, contributing to high-stakes felony cases, including murder and capital offenses. He also served in Barry's Juvenile Defense Clinic, where he successfully represented minors facing criminal charges, securing favorable outcomes without trial.

Ravin graduated from Barry Law in May 2020 and passed the Florida Bar in October 2020. He is also admitted to practice in Illinois, California and Colorado. Ravin considers it a privilege to serve clients during some of the most difficult moments of their lives and remains committed to fighting tirelessly on their behalf.

You can reach Ravin directly on his cell phone at 407-259-8624 or by email at Rsahadeo@forthepeople.com.
