Lindsay Koppelman is a dedicated Florida workers' compensation attorney committed to fighting for the rights of injured workers with passion and expertise. Since 2017, Lindsay has successfully navigated complex claims and helped countless clients across Miami-Dade, Broward, Palm Beach, and Monroe counties secure the medical care and benefits they deserve under the Florida workers' compensation system.

Originally from Vero Beach, Florida, Lindsay earned her Bachelor of Science in Public Relations from the University of Florida and her Juris Doctor from Florida Coastal School of Law. She began her legal career in Atlanta, Georgia, honing her litigation skills before returning to Florida to focus on workers' compensation and personal injury law. Today, she provides personalized, compassionate advocacy to clients throughout South Florida, including Fort Lauderdale, Miami, and the Keys.

Lindsay is actively engaged in the legal community and recognized for her expertise and service. She is a member of the State Bar of Florida, the American Bar Association, and participates in leading organizations such as Florida Workers' Advocates and the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Section. She has served on the Workers' Compensation Academy Steering Committee, spoken on multiple panels, and received an award for exemplary service to the profession. Within Morgan & Morgan, Lindsay consistently ranks among the top 15 workers' compensation attorneys nationwide, reflecting her results-driven approach, thorough preparation, and unwavering commitment to client success.

Grounded in empathy and strategic advocacy, Lindsay's philosophy is simple: listen, advocate, and deliver results. She understands that workplace injuries carry profound personal and financial impacts and ensures her clients feel supported and informed at every step—from initial claim filing and medical authorization issues to benefit disputes and resolution.

If you or a loved one has been injured on the job, contact Lindsay Koppelman today for a free consultation to discuss your case and explore your legal options.
