EDUCATION

Emory University

Creighton University School of Law

Michael Cantrell brings extensive experience in the field of workers' compensation to his practice, having been admitted to the bar in 2004. His legal journey began with representing employers and insurance companies for almost 11 years, providing him with invaluable insights into the intricacies of workers' compensation law from both sides of the spectrum. Since 2015, Mr. Cantrell has transitioned his practice to focus on representing injured workers, demonstrating his commitment to advocating for the rights and well-being of individuals facing work-related injuries.

Residing in Brandon, Florida, with his wife and two sons, Mr. Cantrell is deeply rooted in his community and understands the challenges that injured workers and their families may encounter. His dedication to this area of law is evident in his active membership with the Florida Bar and his involvement in the Workers' Compensation Section, where he continues to stay updated on legal developments and best practices. Mr. Cantrell's compassionate approach and comprehensive understanding of workers' compensation issues make him a valuable asset to individuals seeking legal representation in Tampa, Florida, and beyond.
