Ian A. Steiner is a dedicated attorney based in Morgan & Morgan's Jacksonville office, serving clients with a robust background and a deep commitment to achieving justice. Hailing from Jacksonville, Florida, Ian's roots run deep in the local community where he currently resides with his wife and children. His academic journey led him to Florida State University, where he earned degrees in International Affairs, Russian, and Biology, showcasing his diverse intellectual interests. Subsequently, Ian pursued his legal education at the Florida A&M University College of Law, where he honed his legal skills and developed a passion for advocating on behalf of others.

Before joining Morgan & Morgan, Ian gained valuable experience working for Florida's largest insurance defense firm. During this time, he focused on defending cases involving motor vehicle accidents, slip and falls, trip and falls, as well as childcare abuse. This experience provided Ian with a comprehensive understanding of insurance defense strategies, which he now leverages to effectively represent injured clients. Ian's transition to advocating for the injured reflects his unwavering dedication to fighting for justice and ensuring that his clients receive the compensation and support they deserve.

Ian's practice areas at Morgan & Morgan encompass a wide range of personal injury matters, including car accidents, dog bite attacks, negligent security cases, premises liability, and slip and fall incidents. With his strong educational background, legal expertise, and commitment to his clients' well-being, Ian is a trusted advocate in Jacksonville, Florida, standing firm in his pursuit of justice for those who have suffered injuries due to negligence.
