Arthur Petrousian is a Partner at Morgan & Morgan in the firm's California offices. For more than a decade, Arthur has recovered millions of dollars in verdicts and settlements on behalf of injured victims all throughout California. He has successfully litigated thousands of personal injury cases, including several notable high-profile cases that have been featured on ABC News, Fox News, and TMZ.

A Los Angeles native, Arthur has dedicated his career to representing clients in all types of personal injury and wrongful death cases. His personal approach to all cases involves taking the time to understand each client's story and zealously advocating for their pursuit of justice. His practice centers on serious automobile and trucking collisions involving spinal cord injuries, traumatic brain injuries, and representing families in wrongful death claims. He is a proud member of the Consumer Attorneys Association of Los Angeles (CAALA), an organization that fights for justice, protecting the right to trial by jury, and fosters continuing legal education.

Arthur is licensed to practice before all the courts of the state of California and the United States District Court of the Central & Eastern Districts of California, and the United States Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit.
