EDUCATION

George Mason School of Law

Zach White grew up in Michigan near the city of Ann Arbor. Go Blue! He received his Bachelors degree from Western Michigan University and his Juris Doctorate from the George Mason School of Law in Arlington, Virginia where he was a Merit Scholarship recipient.

While in law school, he helped found the Northern Virginia Bankruptcy Clinic which helps indigent citizens with bankruptcy and other legal matters. In addition, Mr. White was a member of Masons Trial Advocacy team where he competed against other law students from around the country in trial fluency.

Besides working as an attorney, Mr. White enjoys all outdoor activities, sporting events, cooking, movies, and spending time with loved ones.

Counselor White hopes that his work involving personal injury, will bring much needed resolutions and compensation to all of his clients. Mr. White knows that Morgan and Morgan is the premier law firm for all personal injury matters, and is confident that any citizen is just a phone call away from the legal assistance that they need.
