Trinetta D. Fisher's life began in Bentonia, Mississippi and then she later moved to Hollywood, Florida. She earned her Juris Doctor from Florida A&M University College of Law in 2005 and her undergraduate degree in Information Studies and English Literature from Florida State University in 2002. After graduation from law school, Trinetta began her legal career as an Assistant Public Defender in Orlando, Florida where she handled a very large caseload. She was quickly promoted to the felony division thus she has experience with misdemeanor and felony trials. After her tenure at the Public Defender's Office, she became an Assistant General Counsel with The Florida Department of Environmental Protection, in Tallahassee, Florida. After handling complex environmental clean-up cases in which she relied on State and Federal regulations, Trinetta began working for The Florida Board of Bar Examiners as an Assistant General Counsel. During her tenure at the Florida Board of Bar Examiners, Trinetta conducted over 100 formal hearings/administrative trials, wrote bar exam multiple choice questions, wrote charging documents (Specifications), conducted discovery, wrote negotiating documents, and reviewed hundreds of files.

After Trinetta left The Florida Board of Bar Examiners, she went to work in the private sector. During her private sector experience, she has handled Florida Board of Bar Examiners hearings, personal injury claims, probate, wrong death claims, guardian ad litem issues, insurance claims, consumer credit issues and criminal defense work.

Trinetta is the mother of Nasir, Lena and Russell.
