

Terence Davis

Washington, DC
(202) 772-0595
tdavis@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

Clemson University

Charlotte School of Law

Terence Davis was born and raised in Charleston, South Carolina. He received his Bachelor's in Management from Clemson University and graduated with his Juris Doctorate from Charlotte School of Law. Mr. Davis began his legal career clerking for the Honorable William A. Snoddy at the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, Maryland.

After finishing his clerkship, Mr. Davis was an Associate Attorney for a personal injury law firm in the D.C. metro area representing claimants in workers' compensation, personal injury, and social security. Mr. Davis then worked as an Associate County Attorney for Prince George's County, Maryland. As an Associate County Attorney, he represented Prince George's County as an Employer/Insurer before the Workers' Compensation Commission, the Circuit Courts of Maryland, and the Court of Appeals of Maryland. Mr. Davis is passionate about helping people in need and navigating them through difficult times.

Mr. Davis lives in Washington, D.C. In his free time, Mr. Davis enjoys exploring museums in D.C., traveling, watching Clemson football, running, and trying new restaurants. Mr. Davis was honored by the Maryland State Bar Association and The Daily Record for being a 2026 Leader in Law.

BAR ADMISSION

- Maryland
- District of Columbia

MEMBERSHIPS

- Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.
- Maryland Bar Association
- Prince George's County Bar Association
- Montgomery Bar Association
- Baltimore/Washington Clemson Club

PRACTICE AREAS

- Personal Injury Lawyer
- Slip and Fall Lawyers
- Workers' Compensation Attorneys

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

Terence Davis

Washington, DC
(202) 772-0595
tdavis@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

Clemson University

Charlotte School of Law

- Leader in Law 2026 (Maryland State Bar Association and The Daily Record)