EDUCATION

West Texas A&M University

St. Thomas University

Tanner Lakey was born and raised in Amarillo, Texas. After receiving his B.S. in 2014 from West Texas A&M University, Mr. Lakey moved to Miami, Florida where he earned his J.D. and Master of Business Administration from St. Thomas University. While at St. Thomas, Mr. Lakey was heavily involved in student organizations such as St. Thomas Law Review and serving as Vice President of the student bar association.

Mr. Lakey focuses his practice on representing homeowners and businesses that have suffered property damage and have been improperly denied or underpaid by their property insurance company.

When not representing policyholders, Tanner spends his free time exercising, playing team sports, and staying involved in his community through various local outreaches, including serving at his church, Vous Church.
