Riley W. Snider is a personal injury attorney in the Alpharetta office of Morgan & Morgan. Riley represents individuals and families injured or killed in trucking, commercial motor vehicle and automobile collisions.

Riley was born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia. He earned his Juris Doctor from Mercer University School of Law where he served on the Mercer Law Review and was an academic success mentor. Along with his law degree, Riley possesses a financial background and earned his MBA with honors, graduating magna cum laude during his time in law school. This allows him to grasp the business aspects of his clients' requirements and legal issues, resulting in valuable experience with handling complex and sensitive situations.

Before becoming a part of Morgan & Morgan, Riley served as a lawyer at one of the nation's largest civil defense firms, where he acted on behalf of insurance companies in intricate commercial litigation cases covering various domains, including general liability, transportation, premises liability, and claims of wrongful death. He is licensed to practice law in all Georgia State and Superior Courts as well as the United States District Courts for the Northern and Middle Districts of Georgia.

Riley loves to travel alongside his wife and their two children, while also valuing the time spent with their two dogs.
