EDUCATION

La Salle University

Temple University - James E. Beasley School of Law

Rebecca A. Sweeney is a Premises Attorney in Morgan & Morgan's Philadelphia office. As a dedicated plaintiff's attorney, Rebecca has committed her career to representing injured parties and seeking out justice. In her prior experience with both boutique and high-volume local plaintiff's firms she advocated on behalf of victims in motor vehicle accidents and premises liability incidents. She understands the care that each case deserves and fights tirelessly to achieve the best possible outcomes for her clients.

Born and raised in New York City, Rebecca is aggressive and resilient. Although a New Yorker at heart, she was educated and trained in The City of Brotherly Love. She moved to Philadelphia during college while she earned her B.A. from La Salle University and remained in town to start her legal career and earn her J.D. from Temple University – James E. Beasley School of Law. When she's not working, Rebecca spends her time listening to alternative music and appreciating all forms of art.
