Travis Savoia is an attorney with Morgan & Morgan in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. With more than 10 years of total legal experience, Mr. Savoia provides unmatched advocacy and support to clients who have suffered a serious injury or lost a loved one due to someone else's negligence or wrongdoing.

A veteran of hundreds of personal injury cases and dozens of trials and arbitrations, Mr. Savoia has secured millions of dollars in settlements and verdicts for his plaintiff clients, earning his membership in the Million Dollar Advocates Forum. Mr. Savoia has been selected as a Rising Star by Pennsylvania Super Lawyers Magazine. Just 2.5 percent of lawyers under the age of 40 receive this honor.

This award is conferred by Thomson Reuters. A description of the selection methodology is available here. No aspect of this advertisement has been approved by the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

In addition, he has also successfully handled a number of appeals, and he strives to provide the highest level of representation possible for individuals and families adversely affected by traumatic brain injuries, spinal cord injuries, burn injuries, wrongful death and other preventable tragedies. He has won cases against some of the largest trucking companies and corporations in the country, and he has earned consistent top rankings and endorsements from his peers for his outstanding professionalism and service. Moreover, he has also received numerous testimonials and referrals from his satisfied clients, and he finds great reward in being able to help so many in his region during their times of need.

A 2007 graduate of Bloomsburg University with a degree in political economics, Mr. Savoia received publication in the Frederick Douglass Book of Academic Excellence. He then went on to obtain his Juris Doctor from Penn State Dickinson School of Law in 2010, receiving recognition as a public interest advocate. He also completed clerkships in the Pennsylvania Attorney General's Office Capital Crimes Appellate Litigation Unit and the Perry County Public Defender's Office.

Mr. Savoia holds his license to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and he is admitted to practice before the U.S.
