EDUCATION

University of Memphis

University of Memphis Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law

Though not a native-Memphian by birth, Mohammed Farraj considers Memphis his adopted home. Mr. Farraj moved from the northeast to Tennessee in his first year of high school. After graduating from the University of Memphis and the University of Memphis Cecil C. Humphrey's School of Law, Mr. Farraj embarked on his legal career in search of a way to give back to Memphis.

Mr. Farraj worked at a defense firm for several years and learned the inner-workings of insurance companies. Once he realized his true calling was to help the people of Memphis, he brought his knowledge and skills to Morgan & Morgan where he now practices personal injury claims on behalf of individuals injured in premises liability claims and car wrecks. He works zealously for his clients and navigates litigation against insurance companies on a regular basis.

Mohammed Farraj is licensed to practice law in Tennessee and Mississippi, but his clients may reach him in his Memphis office.
