EDUCATION

University of Kansas 2002

University of Kansas 1999

Bryce Spano was born and raised in Kansas. He attended the University of Kansas where he was a member of the University's Division I Men's Cross Country and Track & Field Teams, receiving his B.S. in Business Administration in 1999. In 2002 he received his Juris Doctorate Degree from the University of Kansas. While attending Law School in Lawrence, he was a Law Clerk at the Office of the Kansas Secretary of State.

Before joining Morgan & Morgan, Mr. Spano worked for insurance companies where he tried and defended auto negligence and premises liability cases. He now dedicates his practice to representing individuals and families who have been injured due to the negligence of others. Mr. Spano has received an "AV" rating by Martindale-Hubbell, which is a testament to the fact that his peers rank him at the highest level of professional excellence. Mr. Spano is also a Board Certified Civil Trial Lawyer – a very prestigious recognition which is attained by less than two percent of all Florida attorneys.

Mr. Spano is married and he and his wife, Jamie, have a son and a daughter. In his free time, Bryce enjoys running, playing golf, and spending time with his friends and family.
