Arizona State University - Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law (2021)

Jagger Lieb grew up in Port Orange, Florida before attending Mercer University in Macon, Georgia. While at Mercer, Jagger was a scholarship football athlete.

Jagger attended law school in Phoenix, Arizona at Arizona State University's Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law, where he served as a torts teaching assistant. While in law school, Jagger also clerked at the Arizona Supreme Court and worked at a well-respected local personal injury law firm.

After law school, Jagger was admitted to the Florida Bar in 2021, at which time he was asked to speak at Florida's Fifth Circuit Admission Ceremony as a top scorer on the July 2021 Bar Exam.

Jagger started his legal career handling claims for a Fortune 500 Title Insurance Company in Jacksonville, Florida. There, he gained an understanding of the importance of the language used in insurance policies. He continues to utilize his insurance interpretation skills and experience to obtain better outcomes for his clients.

In 2023, Jagger arrived at the Jacksonville, Florida office of Morgan & Morgan. He then moved to the Boston, Massachusetts office of Morgan & Morgan in 2026, where he handles primarily Massachusetts and New Hampshire pedestrian and automobile collision cases.
