EDUCATION

Duquesne University for both B.A. 2015, J.D. 2018

Attorney Nicholas A. Frost has been practicing law since 2018 after completing both his undergraduate and law degrees at Duquesne University. Over the span of his legal career, he has chosen to focus his work in the area of helping injured people get the help they need and deserve.

Attorney Frost is a 2015 graduate of Duquesne University, where he graduated cum laude with a B.A. in Political Science and Journalism. He then continued his stay on the Bluff when he attended Duquesne University's School of Law where he obtained his Juris Doctorate in 2018. During his time in law school, Nicholas earned a CALI Excellence for the Future award in Criminal Law and served as Executive Editor for Juris Magazine. He also interned with Matthews International, Inc., the Allegheny County Public Defender's Office, the Allegheny County District Attorney's Office, the City of Pittsburgh's legal department, and Duquesne University's NCAA Compliance office.

Following graduation from law school, Nicholas clerked for a year for the Honorable Linda Rovder Fleming in the Cambria County Court of Common Pleas before gaining experience with Pennsylvania workers' compensation, personal injury claims, and social security disability working up cases from the intake level all the way to their conclusion, which included a settlement north of $300,000 in 2022.

Outside of the time spent working for his clients, Nicholas also enjoys spending time with his family; playing soccer, golf, or basketball; and watching Pittsburgh's local teams.
