EDUCATION

Occidental College- 2012

Florida State University College of Law- 2015

Dillon Jess is a personal injury attorney in the Jacksonville, FL office of Morgan & Morgan, P.A. His focus in on fighting for individuals and families injured due to the negligence of others.

Dillon was born in south Florida before moving to Colorado. After years of shoveling snow, he headed further west and back to a warmer climate in Los Angeles where he graduated from Occidental College. He then returned to the east coast and received his Juris Doctor from Florida State University College of Law. While in law school, Dillon was recognized for his pro bono service and work with the Journal of Land Use and Environmental Law.

Dillon has spent his professional career protecting and fighting for consumers. At the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation, he targeted unsafe and fraudulent practices among a variety of professions including Auctioneering, Barbering, and Veterinary Medicine. In 2017, Dillon directed that effort towards insurance companies that mistreated victims of negligence and their own insured homeowners. Following a string of disastrous hurricane seasons in the southeast, Dillon also became licensed in Louisiana and has since assisted families across Florida and Louisiana in recovering funds to repair their damaged homes and businesses. He is proud to have always worked for the people.

Dillon enjoys cycling and is an avid baseball fan.
