

Brad Stackhouse

Jacksonville, FL
(904) 944-8367
bstackhouse@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

Texas State University

Florida Coastal School of Law

Brad Stackhouse, born and raised in Texas, is a veteran of the United States Navy He joined the Navy shortly after 9/11 and served on the USS Cushing and the USS McCampbell as a cryptologist in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom.

After completing college and starting a family he embarked on a career in the insurance industry which he left to attend law school.

Law school brought him and his family to Florida where he decided to plant roots and begin his practice of law. Brad worked for a large personal injury law firm and rose through the ranks to become the managing attorney of within that firm where he oversaw the work of approximately 25 attorneys and their staff. Brad has been a part of and litigated over a thousand personal injury claims in his career.

Brad is the proud parent of two girls and enjoy many local community activities.

If you or a loved one has been injured, Brad would be honored to speak to you about your case.

BAR ADMISSION

- Florida
- Middle District of Florida

MEMBERSHIPS

- Academy of Trucking Accident Attorneys
- Jacksonville Justice Association
- Jacksonville Bar Association

PRACTICE AREAS

- Personal Injury Lawyer