EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Criminology, University of West Georgia

Juris Doctor, Charleston School of Law

Tandeka "Tandy" Sitole, a native of Atlanta, Georgia, is a first-generation citizen born to South African/Zimbabwean parents. She graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree from the University of West Georgia and earned her Juris Doctor degree from the Charleston School of Law.

She commenced her legal career as a prosecutor in Fulton County. Tandy navigated diverse criminal matters and acquired substantial courtroom and trial experience. Leveraging these skills, she seamlessly transitioned to a boutique Personal Injury law firm, proficiently managing a significant caseload. Her role encompassed conducting numerous mediations and depositions while consistently achieving stellar results for her clients.

Tandy's tenure as a prosecutor reflects her unwavering commitment to justice and advocacy. From zealously fighting and advocating for victims of crime, she now channels that passion towards representing victims of car accidents caused by negligence. Tandy's chief objective is to ensure her clients receive the compensation that they rightly deserve.

Beyond her legal pursuits, Tandy finds joy in television, travel, cooking, following NBA basketball games, shopping, and spending quality time with family and friends.

Her dedication to community impact is evident through her role as a mentor and her active involvement in volunteering with Girl Scouts and the youth ministry at her church.
