

Katharine Fitzpatrick

Savannah, GA
(912) 443-1039
k.fitzpatrick@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

Mississippi College, 2008-2013

Mississippi College School of Law, 2013-2015

Savannah Law School, 2016-2019

Katharine Fitzpatrick, barred in the State of Georgia, is a dedicated personal injury attorney based in Savannah. She earned her psychology degree from Mississippi College in 2013 and began her legal studies at Mississippi College School of Law. During her 2L year, she moved to Savannah and continued her education at Savannah Law School, earning her J.D. in 2019. Throughout her academic journey, Ms. Fitzpatrick worked full-time as a case manager and paralegal for Roden Law, exemplifying her commitment and work ethic.

Ms. Fitzpatrick's legal career is distinguished by her early passion for litigation. She gained valuable experience working for a federal judge and the law firm Savage Turner. For nearly four years, she has been an attorney at a personal injury firm in Savannah known for its competitive spirit with Morgan & Morgan. Ms. Fitzpatrick is now a valued member of the Morgan & Morgan team, where she continues to dedicate herself to advocating for her clients' rights with unwavering dedication and expertise.

BAR ADMISSION

- State Bar of Georgia

PRACTICE AREAS

- Personal Injury Lawyer