Brennan Ducote is a dedicated trial attorney based in Jackson, Mississippi, specializing in premises liability cases. A Louisiana native, he relocated to Mississippi to attend Millsaps College, where he not only excelled academically but also showcased his talent as a collegiate baseball player. During his time at Millsaps, Brennan gained practical legal experience by clerking at the Morgan & Morgan office in Jackson, working closely with seasoned attorneys like Benjamin Wilson.

After graduating with a Bachelor of Business Administration from Millsaps College in 2019, Brennan pursued his legal education at Mississippi College School of Law, where he graduated cum laude in 2022. Admitted to practice law in Mississippi and licensed to appear before the United States District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of Mississippi, Brennan provides top-notch legal representation to his clients, ensuring their rights are protected and justice is served in premises liability cases.
