Matthew Huster holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Marquette University and graduated with his Juris Doctorate from Loyola University-Chicago School of Law.

Mr. Huster has been a trial lawyer since 2007, representing people injured or killed by wrongful conduct. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Mr. Huster was an associate with the Chicago personal injury law firm of Pavalon & Gifford where he successfully represented families and individuals in personal injury litigation, including medical malpractice, premises liability, and automobile liability matters.

Mr. Huster credits his skill as a lawyer to both the depth and breadth of his previous experiences. As part of a talented team of lawyers at Morgan & Morgan, Mr. Huster makes sure his clients receive the best possible representation. He has been trained to pursue each case aggressively and strategically in order to ensure that his clients get the justice they deserve.

Mr. Huster currently resides in North Atlanta, with his wife and two sons, all of whom remain devoted Chicago Bears fans.
