Dale Krout is a dedicated plaintiff's attorney based in Nashville, Tennessee, with a rich background in law and a strong commitment to advocating for his clients' rights. As a first-generation attorney, Dale brings a unique perspective to his practice, rooted in empathy and a deep understanding of the legal challenges individuals face. He joined the firm in 2020 following his role as a Judicial Law Clerk for the Presiding Judge of the 20th Judicial District in Nashville, Tennessee, where he gained invaluable insights into the intricacies of the legal system.

Throughout his career, Dale has developed strong litigation skills across a wide range of cases, including premise liability, complex business disputes, health care liability, wrongful death claims, and motor vehicle accidents. His comprehensive grasp of these legal areas enables him to offer strategic and effective representation, ensuring his clients receive fair compensation and justice.

Dale earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Bloomsburg University of Pennsylvania in 2014 before obtaining his Juris Doctor from Wake Forest University in 2017. Apart from his legal work, Dale is an avid fantasy football player, a devoted supporter of the Tennessee Titans, and enjoys exploring the vibrant culture of Music City with his partner and their Australian Shepherd. He is admitted to practice law in Tennessee and is committed to serving the legal needs of clients in Nashville and surrounding areas.
