University of Central Florida, Bachelors of Science, Legal Studies

Thai Phi H. Vo is a premises liability attorney in Orlando. With extensive experience in writing as well as law, he is an outstanding communicator and legal mind. While earning a multitude of awards in law school at Barry School of Law, Thai also found time to join the prestigious Journal of Technology Law & Policy which required extensive editing and legal research. Thai credits this experience as one of the main reasons why his legal writing skills are so sharp. Clients appreciate Thai's being available to answer questions, and his ability to simplify complex legal language to key takeaways and options. His expertise is being able to understand the situation, and Thai is fully committed to seeing his clients win.
