Christopher Mank

Lakeland, FL
(863) 400-7673
cmank@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

MERCER UNIVERSITY, STETSON SCHOOL OF BUSINESS, BBA 1991

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI, JD 1999

Christopher Mank is a fourth generation Miamian. After high school he attended Mercer University in Macon, Georgia. He worked a few years before attending the University of Miami School of Law.

After law shool, Mr. Mank began practicing as an attorney working as in-house counsel in Zurich, Switzerland. Upon his return to the U.S., Mr. Mank worked in Miami and Coral Gables handling the defense for premises liability, medical malpractice, products liability and admiralty/maritime cases.

In 2006, Mr. Mank left South Florida and moved to Lakeland. In Lakeland he represented individuals in personal injury, workers compensation, and social security disability claims.

In 2015, Mr. Mank started his own firm where he continued to handle personal injury, workers compensation, social security disability claims, as well as workers compensation premium disputes for employers, foreclosure defense, longshore and harbor worker, bankruptcy and employment law claims.

In 2023, Mr. Mank was asked to join Morgan & Morgan as a workers compensation attorney. Accordingly, he represents injured workers in their claims to get medical and lost wage benefits.

Mr. Mank is a member of the Florida Bar as well as the Federal Bar for the Northern, Southern, and Middle Districts of Florida.

On week nights and weekends Mr. Mank is usually attending, coaching or stadium announcing a game for one of his children.

BAR ADMISSION

- Florida
- Federal Courts for the Northern, Southern and Middle Districts of Florida

PRACTICE AREAS