Mr. Dean brings a wealth of legal experience and a deep commitment to advocating for his clients in personal injury cases. His journey in law began with a strong academic foundation, graduating from Syracuse University with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. He then pursued his legal education at the University of Miami School of Law, where he earned his Juris Doctor degree and received prestigious scholarships, including the Merit Based Scholarship, Carlton Fields HOPE Fellow Scholarship, and HOPE Summer Public Interest Fellow recognition.

After completing his legal education, Mr. Dean embarked on a diverse legal career that equipped him with valuable skills and perspectives. He started as a public defender in Miami Dade County, where he gained extensive courtroom experience and developed a strong sense of advocacy for his clients, particularly those facing challenging circumstances. His tenure as a public defender strengthened his abilities as a trial attorney and deepened his dedication to fighting for justice on behalf of the indigent individuals he represented. Later, he transitioned to work as an insurance defense attorney, gaining invaluable insights into the inner workings of insurance companies and their processes for evaluating claims. This unique perspective from both sides of legal representation enhances Mr. Dean's ability to effectively navigate personal injury cases and secure favorable outcomes for his clients.
