Aaron De Angelis has been successfully representing people hurt or killed by the wrongful conduct of others for more than a decade. He has secured numerous multi-million dollar recoveries for his clients.

Mr. De Angelis began his legal career in 2008 working as an insurance defense attorney in Chicago, Illinois. He then elected to switch sides taking his defense experience and using it for the benefit of his injured plaintiff clients. Since that time, he has dedicated himself to obtaining justice for his clients and, at the same time, promoting change to prevent future unnecessary injury or loss of life.

Mr. De Angelis concentrates his legal practice in areas that include: transportation/motor vehicle crashes; wrongful death; catastrophic personal injury; traumatic brain injury; construction injuries; and premises liability.
