

Andrew AsBridge

📍 Paducah, KY

📞 (270) 558-6878

✉️ aasbridge@forthepeople.com

EDUCATION

Lambuth University, 2009

Appalachian School of Law,
2015

Andrew AsBridge grew up in Salem, Kentucky and has been practicing law in Kentucky since 2015. Upon graduating as valedictorian from Livingston Central High School in 2005, Mr. AsBridge attended Lambuth University, in Jackson, Tennessee, where he pursued his undergraduate studies. Mr. AsBridge went on to attend Appalachian School of Law, in Grundy, Virginia, where he graduated cum laude in 2015.

Mr. AsBridge began his law practice in his home county of Livingston where he focused in personal injury, criminal defense and family law. In 2018 he moved to Paducah joining a local law firm where continued to focus on personal injury and other general practice areas. Prior to coming to Morgan & Morgan, he successfully argued a case in front of the Kentucky Supreme Court involving child custody.

Mr. AsBridge joined Morgan & Morgan July of 2023, focusing his practice on car wreck litigation where he has hit the ground running, working every day to get the best results for each and every client.

Mr. AsBridge is married to his wife Jessica and has two daughters, Isabelle and Reagan. In his spare time, he enjoys golf and CrossFit.

BAR ADMISSION

- Commonwealth of Kentucky
- United States District Court, Western Kentucky

PRACTICE AREAS

- Personal Injury Lawyer
- Car Accident Lawyers & Auto Accident Attorneys

RESULTS

- Moss, Dennis v Kentucky Oaks Mall, General Liability (2025), $1,800,000