Chapman University, Fowler School of Law - 2018

Darren Antony, a native of Orange County, is a distinguished personal injury attorney with a solid foundation in psychology and law. He completed his undergraduate studies at UC Riverside, where he majored in Psychology with a concentration in Law & Society. It was during his time at UCR that Darren developed a profound passion for law, inspired by the impactful law classes and the dynamic legal environment. He then advanced his education at Chapman University's Fowler School of Law, where his dedication to the legal field deepened. During his second year of law school, Darren began working at a boutique personal injury firm, setting the stage for his future career.

Over the six years at the boutique firm, Darren honed his skills and expanded his knowledge in personal injury law, becoming a passionate advocate for those injured due to the negligence of others. His commitment to his clients and his pursuit of justice led him to join Morgan & Morgan, one of the nation's leading personal injury firms. At Morgan & Morgan, Darren continues to dedicate his practice to representing victims, leveraging his extensive experience and deep understanding of personal injury law to secure the best outcomes for his clients. His approachable demeanor and unwavering commitment make him a trusted ally in the fight for the rights of the injured.
