EDUCATION

University of Pittsburgh

Drexel Kline School of Law

Eli Levine has spent the entirety of his professional career fighting for his clients and helping them achieve the justice they are entitled to. Eli understands that when he gets a call from a catastrophically injured client, or from the family of a loved one who suffered a preventable death, they are quite possibly in their darkest moments and are at their very core simply seeking help. Eli understands the great responsibility and privilege it is to provide that help and assist those individuals and their families in their fight for justice

Eli has litigated thousands of personal injury claims during his career including premises liability, medical malpractice, products liability, and motor vehicle accidents; regardless of the type of claim Eli knows all too well that insurance companies seldom do the right thing unless you make them do it.

Eli has recovered tens of millions of dollars fighting for his clients and wakes up everyday eager to continue the fight.

It would be an honor to fight alongside you in your pursuit for the justice you are entitled to.
