Frederick "Ricky" Pye III is an experienced litigator with our Personal Injury Litigation Auto team. He focuses his practice on assisting clients who have been harmed by the negligence of others in automobile crashes.

Ricky has deep roots in the South Florida region as he was born and raised in the area. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Central Florida in Orlando, Florida and returned home to attend Nova Southeastern University College of Law. He began his practice of law with a defense firm representing insurance carriers.

In early 2018, Ricky began working on behalf of the public against insurance carriers. Ricky is a passionate advocate for his clients. He is cognizant of the power dynamics involved in any insurance claim and is well aware of the tactics that insurance industry deploys to intimidate the public into taking less than fair value for their claims. He takes pride in fighting for those who may not be able to fight for themselves – for the people.

Outside of the office, Mr. Pye spends his time practicing Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and with his beautiful wife Nicole, son and dog Kali.
