EDUCATION

University of Central Florida,
B.S. Legal Studies, 2007

Florida A&M University School of Law, J.D. cum laude, 2014

Jesse Rowe was born in Baltimore, Maryland where he fell in love with good seafood, lacrosse, and NFL football. He moved to Orlando, Florida in 1997 and was quick to call it home. In 2007, he graduated with honors from the University of Central Florida and received his bachelor's degree in Legal Studies with a minor in Criminal Justice.

Mr. Rowe's sole career focus has been representing injured workers in their workers' compensation cases. In 2007, he started as a workers' compensation paralegal at Van Dingenen Law, in Winter Park, Florida. In 2010, he attended law school in the evenings at Florida A&M University while working full time during the day. In 2014, he graduated Cum Laude with his Juris Doctorate and was admitted to the Florida Bar. He immediately transitioned from paralegal to attorney, representing injured workers. In 2018, he joined Morgan & Morgan as the workers' compensation attorney in their Daytona Beach office.

In 2024, Mr. Rowe became board certified by The Florida Bar as an expert in workers' compensation law. He is a member of the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Section, platinum member of the Florida Workers' Advocates, and Secretary of the Judge William Wieland American Inn of Court. Mr. Rowe is a frequent speaker at the Florida Bar Workers' Compensation Forum and the Worker's Compensation Institute annual conferences. He also enjoys volunteering and fundraising for Give Kids The World Village and the Friends of 440 Scholarship Fund.

Mr. Rowe resides in Ormond Beach, Florida with his wife and children.
