EDUCATION

University of Kentucky - 2010

University of Kentucky College of Law - 2013

John is the local attorney in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. He oversees daily operations of personal injury cases and pursues resolution of each matter, whether settlement or trial. His main focus is on automobile crashes, including those that involve motorcycles and semi-trailers.

Born in the hills of Appalachia, John was the son of a lawyer and grew up working in his practice - personal injury litigation has been a part of his entire life. Today, he devotes his time to those who find themselves hurt by another's negligence and makes sure they are well-advised and get what they deserve.
