Anthony Cutrona concentrates his practice on personal injury cases in the firm's West Palm Beach Office. Mr. Cutrona specializes in automobile, motorcycle, trucking and boating accidents.

Mr. Cutrona received his B.S. from Florida State University where he majored in Criminal Justice with a minor in Psychology. Mr. Cutrona then went on to receive his J.D. from Nova Southeastern University. While at Nova he was a member of the Nova Trial Association and Student Bar Association.

Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Mr. Cutrona worked for over six years as a defense attorney for a large insurance company. During that time, he litigated countless amounts of personal injury and wrongful death actions. He has tried several trials to verdict acquiring successful results for his clients. He focused most of his time handling large loss and complex cases for the Defense. As a result, he has obtained first-hand knowledge of insurance industry practices in evaluating and defending personal injury claims. Now, he uses his defense experience and knowledge to best approach his client's claims.

When he is away from the courtroom, Mr. Cutrona enjoys spending time with his wife, Melissa, who is also an attorney, his children, and his golden retrievers.
