EDUCATION

Western State College of Law

Mila is a Personal Injury Attorney at Morgan and Morgan's Los Angeles office. She graduated with honors from Western State College of Law in Orange County, California. She also holds an MBA degree with a specialization in Information Technology, reflecting her multifaceted expertise. Mila's pursuit of a Juris Doctorate degree was driven by a deep commitment to giving a powerful voice to the voiceless. During law school, Mila was actively involved in legal associations, including serving as an American Bar Association Representative, and being a member of the Orange County Bar Association, Western San Bernardino Bar Association, and Orange County Women Lawyers Association.

Prior to her role at Morgan and Morgan, Mila's legal practice primarily centered around handling Medical Malpractice and Dental Malpractice cases, demonstrating her dedication to advocating for justice on behalf of those in need.
