Mr. Creasey's legal journey reflects a steadfast dedication to the practice of law and a commitment to achieving justice for his clients. Graduating with honors from Mississippi College of Law in 1999 marked the commencement of his impactful career. His tenure as a Law Partner at Currie, Johnson and Myers from 1999 to 2007 provided him with a solid foundation in various aspects of civil law, with a notable focus on insurance defense. During this period, Mr. Creasey honed his skills in trial advocacy, handling a diverse range of cases and consistently delivering favorable outcomes for his clients through meticulous preparation and effective courtroom strategies.

The establishment of The Creasey Law Office, PLLC, from 2007 to 2015, marked a pivotal phase in Mr. Creasey's career, where he expanded his practice to encompass personal injury law with a strong emphasis on automobile wrecks, premises liability, commercial vehicle wrecks, and products liability. His ability to navigate complex legal issues and achieve substantial verdicts and settlements in the millions of dollars underscores his proficiency as a seasoned litigator. Moreover, Mr. Creasey's dedication to civil trial litigation, including representing clients in property damage and life insurance claims, demonstrates his unwavering commitment to securing justice and favorable outcomes for those he represents.
