EDUCATION

Utah Valley University - 2017

University of Kentucky College of Law - 2021

Kreg practices law in the Bowling Green, Kentucky office, bringing a unique perspective shaped by his experiences prior to joining Morgan & Morgan. He embarked on his legal journey after graduating from the University of Kentucky College of Law, where he acquired a deep understanding of the legal system's intricacies. Kreg's early career involved serving as a staff attorney for two trial court judges in Bowling Green, an experience that highlighted the pivotal role of the trial process and the importance of ensuring that clients' voices are heard. Now, he eagerly anticipates guiding clients through this crucial process and advocating for their rights with diligence and dedication.

Outside of his legal work, Kreg values spending quality time with his family, striking a balance between professional excellence and personal fulfillment. While he is experienced in various legal practice areas, including Car Accidents & Auto Injuries and Personal Injury Claims & Lawsuits, Kreg's current focus lies in advocating for clients who have suffered injuries in automobile accidents. His admission to the Kentucky Bar in 2021 and subsequent admission to the US District Court for the Western District of Kentucky in 2023 further enhance his reputation as a trusted legal professional serving the Bowling Green community.
