EDUCATION

University of Arizona

Northeastern University School of Law

Isabella Bua is a Litigation Attorney at Morgan & Morgan's Boston office specializing in motor vehicle accidents and premises liability. She attended the University of Arizona in Tucson, Arizona, where she received a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and a Bachelor of Arts in Law with a minor in Spanish. While attending the University of Arizona, she volunteered at the Southern Arizona RMHC, held leadership positions within her sorority, and began working at a general hospital's Office of General Counsel.

Isabella went on to earn her Juris Doctorate from Northeastern University School of Law. During her time at Northeastern, she was a Student Attorney at the University's Public Health Advocacy Clinic, focusing on consumer protection laws regarding electronic cigarettes and tobacco in Massachusetts. Additionally, she supported first-year law students with their legal studies as a Teaching Assistant.

Isabella was sworn into the Massachusetts Bar Association in 2022. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Isabella completed legal internships through Northeastern's Cooperative Education program, alternating semesters of academic study with periods of full-time legal work. These internships provided her with experience in public interest law, consumer protection law, and the use of litigation to affect changes in public policy.

Isabella was born and raised in Phoenix, Arizona, but now resides in Boston, Massachusetts. In her spare time, she enjoys playing tennis and hiking.
