EDUCATION

Salve Regina University

New England School of Law

Brandon Gavin's professional journey is marked by a profound dedication to advocating for individuals in need of legal representation. As the PreSuit Operations Manager at Morgan & Morgan's esteemed Boston office, Brandon brings a wealth of experience and expertise to his role. Prior to joining the firm, he served as a Supervising Attorney and Partner, amassing over 14 years of extensive experience handling Social Security Disability claims and appeals. His impressive track record includes representing a multitude of clients, appearing before Judges across 47 states, and securing millions of dollars in lifetime benefits for his clients, a testament to his unwavering commitment to achieving favorable outcomes.

Brandon's academic background further underscores his legal acumen and dedication to justice. He pursued his undergraduate studies at Salve Regina University in Newport, Rhode Island, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in Administration of Justice with a minor in Psychology. During his time at Salve Regina, Brandon distinguished himself as a member of Alpha Phi Sigma, the National Criminal Justice Honor Society, showcasing his exemplary academic performance and commitment to excellence. Subsequently, he pursued his Juris Doctorate from New England School of Law in Boston, MA, solidifying his legal foundation and preparing him for a successful career in law. Raised in Woburn, Massachusetts, Brandon continues to call it his home, sharing his life with his wife, daughter, and cherished dog. In his leisure time, he enjoys bonding with his family, indulging in golfing sessions, and honing his skills as a BBQ pitmaster, reflecting his multifaceted interests and vibrant personality beyond the legal realm.
