Attorney Matt French is bar-certified to practice law in the state of Missouri. Matt brings an unparalleled medical background having served as a Medic in the US Army for 14 years prior to attending law school. Holding positions at both US Central Command and US Special Operations Command, Matt brings the same exceptional commitment of service and excellence to all those who he now represents.

Matt received his BS from Norwich University in Northfield, VT, and his JD from Saint Louis University School of Law in St. Louis, MO. Utilizing the same professionalism and tenacity he acquired during his time in the military, Matt aggressively fights for those who have been injured.

When not working, Matt enjoys Blues and Cardinals games, and spending time with his wife and son.
