EDUCATION

Cleveland State University College of Law (JD - 2012)

Mississippi Valley State University (BS, Business Administration - 2009)

Kevin N. Golden's practice focuses on motor vehicle accidents and personal injury.

Mr. Golden was born and raised in Cleveland, OH. Mr. Golden received his Bachelor's in Business Administration from Mississippi Valley State University where he played football and became a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

After graduating from MVSU, Mr. Golden returned to his hometown to attended law school at Cleveland State University College of Law. While in law school, Mr. Golden was a member of the Entertainment and Sports Law Association and served as the President of the Business Law Association. Additionally, Mr. Golden served as the Business Development Editor of the Global Business Law Review, Social Activities Co-Chairman of the Black Law Students Association, and was a Student Bar Association Senator.

As an Attorney, Mr. Golden has dedicated his practice to civil justice and to being an advocate for underrepresented individuals - both in the courtroom and in the boardroom. Prior to joining Morgan & Morgan, Mr. Golden successfully managed his own law firm through which he has secured millions of dollars for, and protected the legal interests of his clients: who range from accident injury victims, to creatives in music, film, coaching, athletics, merchandising, and publishing industries.

Outside of the office, Mr. Golden is an accomplished songwriter, musician, producer and speaker. He is the biggest fan of his wife, Shayanna, and their three boys: Kevin (Trey), Joshua, and Ezekiel. Mr. Golden and his family are members of Belong Church Atlanta.
