Harry Pike, a dedicated legal professional, has a diverse background that has shaped his career in law. Born in Rhode Island and raised on Block Island, RI, Harry's academic journey began at Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut, where he graduated with Honors in Public Policy & Law. This solid foundation in legal studies propelled him to pursue a Juris Doctorate from the University of Richmond, T.C. Williams School of Law in Richmond, Virginia, where he honed his legal skills and knowledge.

Harry's professional experience is equally varied and impactful. He commenced his legal career as an Immigration Attorney, specializing in business-related visas for a prestigious multi-national firm. This early experience allowed him to develop a keen understanding of complex legal processes and international legal matters. Subsequently, Harry transitioned into litigation in Rhode Island, where he handled a wide range of client matters spanning real estate, business, estates, personal injury, and more. His comprehensive legal background equipped him with the expertise needed to navigate diverse legal challenges effectively.

As a member of the Rhode Island and Massachusetts Bar, as well as the United States Federal Bar for the District of Rhode Island, Harry Pike brings a wealth of legal knowledge and expertise to his role as an eDiscovery Attorney at Morgan and Morgan. In this capacity, he handles numerous complex litigation projects, leveraging his skills in legal research, analysis, and strategic planning to provide exceptional representation to clients. Based in Providence, RI, Harry continues to make significant contributions to the legal field and remains dedicated to upholding the principles of justice and fairness in every case he handles.
