Jordan Roberts Kolodziejczak is a premises liability pre-suit attorney at the Titusville, Florida office of Morgan & Morgan, P.A. She is a graduate of University of North Texas where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. She went on to earn her Juris Doctor from Texas A&M School of Law. After being admitted to the Florida bar, she accepted a position with the Office of the Public Defender for the 9th Judicial Circuit where she worked briefly before accepting a position with the Office of the Public Defender for the 18th Judicial Circuit. Over the next couple of years, she gained extensive litigation experience through her advocacy for the most vulnerable members of our society and completed several jury trials. Prior to attending law school, she worked as a case manager for the Department of Child and Family Services in Phoenix, AZ gaining experience advocating for children unable to advocate for themselves. This experience led her to pursue a career in the legal field. In her free time she enjoys crafting, reading, and spending time with family.
