EDUCATION

University of Southern California (USC)

Southwestern University School of Law

Since her admittance as an attorney in 2011, Ms. Marani has been representing the rights of others in the areas of personal injury, medical malpractice and complex litigation. She began her career in California, gaining invaluable experience at some of Los Angeles' most successful litigation firms. Ms. Marani later moved to Savannah where she continued her work on high-profile litigation matters. Now, as a lawyer for Morgan & Morgan, she fights exclusively for the rights of individuals who have been injured as a result of medical malpractice. Ms. Marani is an active member of several legal organizations, bar committees, and the recipient of multiple legal awards. Her distinctions include being named to both the Georgia Top 40 Under 40 Trial Lawyers and the Georgia Top 100, by the National Trial Lawyers Association.
