University of Florida Levin
College of Law

Connor “Mack” Brock was raised in Dade City, Florida. After graduating high school, he earned his bachelor’s degree in Agricultural Education and Communication with a minor in Agriculture and Natural Resources Law from the University of Florida. At the University of Florida, Connor was named on the Dean’s list for his outstanding academic performance, was a member of Florida Blue Key, Collegiate Farm Bureau, served as President of the College of Agricultural and Life Sciences College Council, and was an active brother of Alpha Gamma Rho.

Connor went on to earn his J.D. from the University of Florida’s Levin College of Law where he was on the Florida Trial Team and served as senior legal researcher for the University of Florida/Institute of Food and Agricultural Sciences (IFAS) Center for Agricultural and Natural Resource Law. He also received the Book Award for his achievement in Trial Practice, an award predicated largely on his performance during mock trials.

Connor began his legal career at a boutique firm in Highlands County, Florida, where he handled various civil litigation matters. Connor joined Morgan & Morgan in 2023 and now proudly fights for those who have been injured as a result of another’s negligence.

Outside of the office, Connor enjoys spending time with his family and within his community. He is actively involved in his church and as an Emerging Leader with The Development Group of Hardee County.
